The 37th Annual Scientific Meeting of the British Society of Toxicological Pathology (BSTP)

Digital Pathology and Mouse Pathology Workshop

Thursday 10th – Friday 11th November 2022
Cedar Court Hotel, Harrogate, UK

Financial support for the meeting has been kindly provided by the Pathological Society of Great Britain and Ireland, which will enable five bursaries with free registration and travel and accommodation costs covered up to £500. There will also be 5 bursaries which will enable free registration only.

Applications are welcome from interested members and non-members of the BSTP. The awarding of funding will be at the discretion of the BSTP Council. Priority will be given to individuals working within an “early career” environment, for example, stipendiary MSc/PhD students, researchers studying/working within a relevant scientific field, or veterinary pathology residents at a recognised institution working towards a professional qualification or gaining more experience within the field of toxicological pathology.

The deadline for applications is Friday 30th September 2022

All applications must be made by email to the BSTP Secretariat bstpsecretariat@gmail.com.

Applications will be assessed by the BSTP Council on merit. Priority may be given to candidates who have submitted poster abstracts to the meeting.

Successful applicants will be notified by the BSTP Secretariat in good time to register for the meeting.

Criteria for application:

1. The applicant must submit a brief description of the relevance of the meeting to their training or career needs and provide the following information:
 - a. A completed BSTP membership application form including:
 - i. A brief CV.
 - ii. A letter of recommendation from a supervisor or senior colleague (in lieu of recommendation from a BSTP member, if unavailable).
 - b. Details of alternative funding that they will receive for the meeting.
 - c. Up to 3 suggestions for future educational activities/topics that would be helpful to their training.
 - d. If applicable, a poster abstract.
2. Following the meeting and prior to receipt of the bursary funds the successful applicants must submit:
 - a. A short article (approx 500 words) describing their own research, a brief overview of the meeting, or a description of how the meeting has contributed to their training/professional knowledge (this may appear in the members-only section of the website).
 - b. An expense claim including receipts for expenses incurred in relation to the meeting (travel/registration).
3. By applying for the bursary, all applicants consent to their details being added to the BSTP mailing list and will automatically receive information on other events when it becomes available. Details will not be passed on to any other organisation without written permission.

The BSTP is registered with the UK Information Commissioners Office (ICO) - Data Protection Act and in addition to its UK responsibilities, the ICO has an international role including co-operation with similar organisations in the rest of Europe and with the European Commission.
